

Warranty

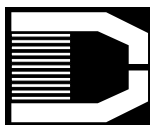

Reliant Relay Company will replace or repair, at its option, any part found to be defective from workmanship, within one year from the date of invoice. This warranty does not include parts not manufactured by Reliant Relay Company, which are subject to the standard manufacturer's warranty. There will be no responsibility for installation or replacement labor or any other contingent liability. Said warranty will not apply if equipment is used in conditions or services for which it is not specifically intended. Reliant Relay Company is not responsible for damage to its apparatus through improper installation, physical damage or poor operating practice.

Charges will be invoiced to the distributor if Reliant Relay Company is called upon to make a system functional because of incorrect field assembly of products. Other warranty information will be referenced in the text supplied with approval drawings and/or cut sheets.

Reliant Relay Company shall not be liable for consequential damage in case of any failure to meet the conditions of any warranty of Shipping Schedule, nor will claims of labor, loss of profits, repairs or other expenses incidental to replacement be allowed.

No representative, person, agent or dealer is authorized to give any warranties on behalf of Reliant Relay Company, nor to assume for Reliant Relay Company any other ruling in connection with any of its products unless made in writing and signed by an officer of Reliant Relay Company.

The above warranty applies only to products purchased directly from Reliant Relay Company and for which payment has been received in full accordance with the terms and conditions stated herein.
